UAlbany is a member of the America East Conference in 16 of 18 varsity sports, while women’s golf is an associate member of the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC), and football, a Division I Football Championship Subdivision program, is an associate member of the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA). UAlbany has earned the Stuart P. Haskell Jr. Commissioner’s Cup, which honors the America East’s top performing athletics department, for six consecutive years and seven times overall.

UAlbany has won 110 conference championships and has made 54 NCAA Tournament appearances since moving to Division I in 1999. Proving to be a perennial power, the Great Danes have won seven or more conference titles in each of the past eight years. UAlbany claimed its 100th conference title on May 14, 2017, when softball won the America East Tournament. Entering the 2018-19 school year, UAlbany has 99 America East Tournament titles, six Northeast Conference (NEC) season titles in football and two MAAC titles in women’s golf.

In 2017-2018, UAlbany earned seven conference championships and made four NCAA Tournament appearances. Men’s lacrosse, ranked No. 1 nationally for six weeks during the regular season, reached the Final Four, and men’s soccer advanced to the NCAA Tournament’s second round. Softball, men’s and women’s outdoor track, women’s indoor track and golf also won league titles. In the classroom, 11 teams carried a GPA of 3.2 or higher.

Throughout its Division I history, UAlbany has had 18 players selected in the Major League Lacrosse Draft, nine players drafted by Major League Baseball and 14 sign NFL contracts.

UAlbany’s more than 400 student-athletes strive every day to be Great Leaders, Great Champions and Great Danes.

Head Coach: Scott Marr (Johns Hopkins ’91), 19th season
Assistant Coach: Merrick Thomson (UAlbany ’07), fourth season
Assistant Coach: John Maloney (UAlbany ’16), first season
Volunteer Assistant Coach: Connor Russell (UAlbany ’17), first season
Mark Benson has served as the University at Albany’s athletic director since Aug. 20, 2014. He provides leadership for an 18-sport athletics program that has won 110 conference championships since moving to Division I in 1999.

Benson’s tenure has been marked by victories on the fields, academic success of student-athletes and fundraising growth.

In 2017-18, UAlbany won an unprecedented sixth consecutive America East Commissioner’s Cup on the strength of six conference titles, two runner-up finishes and four regular-season championships. The men’s lacrosse program also reached new heights, qualifying for the Final Four for the first time. Additionally, UAlbany student-athletes maintained a 3.11 grade-point average.

During the 2016-17 season, UAlbany finished 40th nationally in the Capital One Cup standings, which honors the nation’s top athletic programs. The Great Danes also earned an America East-record nine conference tournament titles, including a sixth straight for the women’s basketball program. And for a fifth consecutive year, UAlbany also took the America East’s Commissioner Cup, awarded annually to the program with the strongest performance in competition.

Overall, the Great Danes have won 33 conference championships during Benson’s tenure.

In addition, in the naming of Tom & Mary Casey Stadium, Benson helped garner a $10 million gift to support the football stadium and other facilities, expand scholarships for student-athletes, and address additional priorities in athletics. The gift was made by The Bernard and Millie Children’s Foundation on Oct. 9, 2015.

Prior to UAlbany, Benson was the senior associate athletic director at Old Dominion University. He also served as the assistant vice president for Athletic Development for eight years, and was an adjunct professor in the Sports Management Program. During his time at Old Dominion, Benson was responsible for budget preparation and administration, as well as providing sport supervision for men’s and women’s sailing. During Benson’s tenure at Old Dominion, the Athletic Endowment grew more than $16 million and the Old Dominion Athletic Foundation annual fund grew from $400,000 to $4.1 million. Benson was responsible for soliciting seven $1 million plus gifts to athletics, as well as numerous significant commitments from donors.

Prior to his time at Old Dominion, Benson worked at Coca-Cola Enterprises, Inc. as an Educational Channel manager. In his role with Coca-Cola, he managed the Educational Channel for the Commonwealth Division, which covers sales centers from eastern Delaware to eastern North Carolina. Benson developed financial and marketing proposals as well as negotiated beverage contracts with colleges and universities within his division.

Benson and his wife Hunter are the parents of three daughters – Vandy Grace, Lydon and Hannum – and a son, MJ. He is a graduate of North Carolina State University.
Scott Marr begins his 19th season as the University at Albany's head coach. The only coach hired in UAlbany’s Division I era, Marr, a six-time America East Coach of the Year, has coached the Great Danes to nine America East Tournament titles, 10 appearances in the NCAA Tournament and six NCAA Tournament victories. His program made its first Final Four appearance in 2018.

Marr has a 179-114 career record at UAlbany and has coached Tewaaraton winners in 2014 and 2015, 34 All-Americans, six Tewaaraton finalists, two Lt. Raymond J. Enners Award winners for Most Outstanding DI Player, three Lt. Col. J.L. Turnbull Award winners for the best attackman in the nation, nine America East Players of the Year and 113 all-conference players.

The program enjoyed its best season in 2018, earning a No. 1 national ranking in both polls during the regular season for the first time and reaching the national semifinals. After winning their ninth America East championship, UAlbany defeated Richmond and Denver in the NCAA Tournament to reach Championship Weekend. During the regular season, the Great Danes posted wins over ranked opponents Syracuse, Maryland, Vermont and Harvard. UAlbany dominated the America East’s postseason awards, sweeping all four major awards and having 11 players named to All-Conference teams. Connor Fields was honored as the America East Offensive Player of the Year, TD Ierlan was selected as the AE Defensive Player of the Year, Tehoka Nanticoke was honored as the AE Rookie of the Year and Marr was chosen as the AE Coach of the Year.

In 2017, UAlbany was ranked as high as No. 4 in the nation for the second straight year, running the table in the America East regular season and tournament to finish 15-3 overall, defeating defending NCAA champion North Carolina in front of 6,472 at Casey Stadium to earn a spot in the NCAA Quarterfinals for the third time in four seasons. UAlbany earned victories over North Carolina, Yale, Binghamton and UMass, all top-20 in the RPI. Ten Great Danes earned America East All-Conference honors, led by Connor Fields, a 2017 Tewaaraton Trophy finalist and Turnbull Award winner for top attackman in Division I. Marr’s squad was the top scoring team in the country with 277 goals, adding 171 assists for 448 points, averaging 15.39 goals per game as nine Great Danes scored double-digit goals.

The 2016 season saw UAlbany return to the top five in the rankings for the first time since 2007, going as high as No. 4 at the start of May, as Marr earned his fifth America East Coach of the Year honor and third in four years. The Great Danes earned their fourth consecutive undefeated America East regular season and first-ever at-large berth into the NCAA Tournament, going 12-4 overall and 6-0 in America East play. UAlbany earned victories over ranked opponents Yale and Stony Brook, including a nine-game winning streak. The Great Danes finished the year ranked No. 9 in the USILA Coaches Poll and No. 11 in the Inside Lacrosse Cascade/Maverik Media Poll. Connor Fields and Blaze Riorden each were selected as Tewaaraton nominees while they, John Maloney and Seth Oakes all were chosen as USILA All-Americans. Marr’s team ranked seventh in Division I in goals per game with 12.94 and also was in the top 10 in assists per game, points per game, man-up offense shot percentage, caused turnovers per game and clearing percentage.

The 2015 season saw Marr coach the Great Danes to a 16-3 record, setting a new program record for wins in a season. UAlbany swept the America East and America East Tournament for the third consecutive season, defeating Cornell to reach the NCAA Tournament quarterfinal round for the second straight year and finishing the season ranked No. 6 in the USILA Coaches Poll and No. 7 in the Inside Lacrosse media poll, each the team’s highest rankings since 2007. The team set new DI records with 325 goals, 202 assists and 528 points, earning double-digit goals in 18 of 19 games played, including wins over ranked opponents Drexel, Harvard, Yale, Stony Brook and Cornell. Lyle Thompson became the sport’s first-ever back-to-back male recipient of the Tewaaraton Trophy and three-time America East Player of the Year, setting a new NCAA DI points record with 400 and assists record with 225. Thompson led all of DI in points per game for the third-straight year and assists per game for the second-consecutive year. Along with Thompson, UAlbany sported 10 America East All-Conference players, tying for the most in program history in a year with 2007.

In 2014, led by the top scoring offense in the nation for the second consecutive year, the Great Danes earned a second-consecutive America East title, their sixth overall, and the program’s second NCAA Tournament victory, taking down No. 1-ranked Loyola, 13-6, in Baltimore and narrowly falling to Notre Dame in the NCAA Quarterfinals. Lyle Thompson and Miles Thompson had historic seasons, becoming the first Native Americans and UAlbany players to earn the Tewaaraton Trophy, sharing the honor after becoming the first pair of Division I teammates to score 100-plus points, earning No. 1 and No. 2 overall in a single season with 128 and 119 points respectively. Lyle Thompson finished No. 1 in the country in points and assists per game, while Miles Thompson finished No. 1 in goals per game and No. 2 in points per game. UAlbany earned victories over Harvard, UMass and Penn State en route to its second consecutive undefeated America East season and tournament title, earning Marr America East Co-Coach of the Year honors.

In 2013, the Great Danes had their best season since ‘07, going 13-5 with a perfect 5-0 conference record, winning the America East and a subsequent berth in the NCAA Tournament. The team earned victories over ranked opponents Syracuse, Johns Hopkins and UMass and finished with a No. 12 ranking. UAlbany had the best offense in the country with 15.94 goals a game, over a goal more than the second place school, and scored in double digits in 16 of their 18 games. Marr was honored as the America East Coach of the Year for the third time. Lyle Thompson led all of Division I with 6.65 points per game, finishing with 50 goals and 63 assists, earning a Tewaaraton finalist honor, the Lt. Col. J.L. Turnbull Award for the best attackman in Division I lacrosse and America East Player of the Year.

In the 2012 season, the Great Danes reached their second straight America East Conference Championship game. Senior attacker Joe Resetarits was named the 2012 America East Conference Men’s Lacrosse Player of the Year and was joined on the all-conference first team by senior long stick defender Travis Lyons.

The Great Danes reached the America East Conference tournament championship final for the eighth time in nine years in the 2010 season.

In 2007, Marr led the Great Danes to their fourth America East Conference championship in five years and the program’s first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament’s quarterfinal round. He was named the USILA Division I National Coach of the Year. UAlbany registered its first NCAA victory as a Division I program in a 19-10 triumph over Loyola before losing a memorable overtime decision to top-ranked Cornell in the quarterfinals. The Great Danes posted a school-record 15-3 mark, defeated seven top 20 teams and were ranked No. 2 nationally for six consecutive weeks during the regular season. Frank Resetarits, a Tewaaraton Trophy finalist, was among four players voted to the USILA All-America squad.

In 2006, Marr’s squad reached the America East Conference championship final for the fifth straight year. His team ranked third nationally in scoring offense at 11.73 goals per game. Marr led the Great Danes to their third consecutive America East Conference Tournament championship and NCAA berth in 2005. UAlbany was sixth among the nation’s scoring leaders (11.63 goals/game). The Great Danes defeated three top 20 squads during the regular season.

Marr guided the UAlbany program to the school’s first-ever NCAA Division I Tournament appearance in 2003. The Great Danes tied a school record for single-season victories at the time with a 10-6 mark. The 2004 squad also posted 10 victories and finished seventh in the nation in team scoring before losing to eventual national champion Syracuse in the NCAA’s first round.

Marr produced significant results in his second year at the helm. UAlbany captured the 2002 America East regular-season title with a 9-7 record. Albany’s six-win improvement from the previous season was the best one-year turnaround in the program’s history. He was recognized for his efforts by being voted East Coach of the Year.

Marr served as one of three assistants for the 2006 U.S. Men’s Lacrosse Team that won the silver medal. Syracuse’s John Desko was the U.S. team’s head coach.

As an assistant on Dick Edell’s Maryland staff for six years, Marr served as both assistant coach and offensive coordinator. Maryland made five NCAA Tournament appearances during that period and was the Division I national runner-up in 1995, 1997 and 1998. The Terrapins shattered the school’s single-season scoring record with 236 goals when the program captured the 1998 Atlantic Coast Conference regular-season and tournament titles. Maryland’s attack averaged 12.5 goals under Marr’s direction from 1995-2000. All-Americans Matt Hahn and Andrew Whipple became two of the most storied scorers in school history.

Marr began his coaching career as the University of Delaware’s offensive coordinator, where he worked with the school’s all-time leading scorer Anthony DiMarzo. From 1992-94, the Blue Hens captured three consecutive North Atlantic Conference championships and earned a top-20 national ranking in each season. Marr was also an assistant on the United States team that won the 1999 World Cup.

As a collegiate player at Johns Hopkins University, Marr was an attackman on the 1987 national championship squad and the ’89 national runner-up team. The Blue Jays garnered four straight NCAA berths during his career. He received a B.S. in social and behavioral sciences in 1991.

A native of Yorktown, N.Y., Marr was a high school All-American who twice led his team to the state’s semifinal round. He and his wife, Traci, a special education teacher, have three children, Kyle, Jordyn and Keeley.

MERRICK THOMSON
Assistant Coach • UAlbany ’07 • 4th season

Former Great Dane standout attack Merrick Thomson enters his fourth season as an assistant coach and offensive coordinator for his alma mater.

In 2018, Thomson coached one of the nation’s top offenses on a team that reached the national semifinals and won an America East title. The Great Danes were the nation’s top-scoring team for the second consecutive season with 14.42 goals per game. UAlbany posted double-digit goals in all but two games and had two players post more than 40 goals: Tehoka Nanticoke (50) and Jakob Patterson (42).

In 2017, Thomson coached the offense to be the highest scoring team in Division I at 15.39 goals per game, totaling 277 goals and 171 for 448 points, including nine double-digit goal scorers. The team had double-digit goals in 16 of 18 games, as the offense helped UAlbany earn its fifth consecutive America East regular season and the 2017 America East Tournament title. Connor Fields earned 117 points, the fourth-highest single scoring season in Division I history. Fields was one of three UAlbany offensive players, along with Kyle McClancy and Adam Osika, to earn All-America honors.

In his first season as a coach with the Great Danes, Thomson’s offense sported three All-Americans and ranked seventh in Division I with 12.94 goals per game. Fields and Seth Oakes each ranked in the top-10 in goals per game to earn All-America honors, while John Maloney also was an All-American in the midfield. Netting double-digit goals in 13 out of 16 contests, the UAlbany offense helped the program earn its fourth consecutive undefeated conference season and first-ever at-large berth into the NCAA Tournament.

Thomson spent six years as the head coach of the Hill Academy, a prep school in his native Canada. He led the Hill Pride to a combined 68-13 record over the final five seasons. While a coach, he also served as the assistant dean of students and an academic advisor.

As a player, Thomson was one of UAlbany’s top offensive players of all-time. From 2004-07, he helped the Great Danes earn three America East titles and the program’s first Division I NCAA Tournament victory. He was a Third-Team All-American in 2007. He finished his career as the program’s all-time leading scorer with 244 points and 188 goals, currently standing third and second respectively in those categories in UAlbany history. When he finished his collegiate career, he stood fourth all-time in NCAA Division I history in goals scored, currently standing seventh.

Thomson earned his undergraduate degree in 2007 and also earned his Master’s Degree in education administration at UAlbany in 2009. He served as a member of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee from 2005 to 2007.

Thomson also had a post-collegiate career, playing for the New Jersey Pride and Toronto Nationals in Major League Lacrosse and the Philadelphia Wings in the National Lacrosse League. He was named the Most Improved Player of the Year in 2008 and led Toronto to the 2009 Steinfeld Cup, being named the playoffs MVP. He also represented Team Canada in international play, leading the squad to the 2007 International Lacrosse Federation World Indoor title.

John Maloney returned to the University at Albany as an assistant coach in the summer of 2018.

Maloney, a 2016 UAlbany graduate with a degree in Human Biology, was a two-time All-America East midfielder and senior captain for the Great Danes. He finished his collegiate career with 76 goals, 45 assists and 127 ground balls before playing one season of Major League Lacrosse with the Chesapeake Bayhawks, totaling 11 points (four goals, seven assists) in 10 games.

A native of Victor, N.Y., Maloney spent one season as an assistant coach at Skidmore College in 2016-17 and another at St. John Fisher this past year.

YEAR-BY-YEAR RESULTS (DI)
Located in New York’s capital city, the University at Albany is the premier public research University in the Capital Region and offers more than 17,000 students the expansive opportunities of a large university in an environment designed to foster individual success.

The excellence of a UAlbany education is recognized by many independent sources. UAlbany is ranked among the top universities in Forbes’ “America’s Best Public Colleges,” and U.S. News & World Report consistently ranks many of our graduate programs among the top 50 in the United States, including clinical psychology, criminal justice, library and information studies, public affairs, public health, sociology, and social work.

UAlbany’s student body and faculty represent more than 100 nations.

Since its founding in 1844, UAlbany has graduated generations of leaders in all fields. Our alumni include Monte and Avery Lipman, founders and chief officers of one of the world’s premier recording labels (Jesse J, Florida Georgia Line, Drake), Republic Records; former Secretary of the Army John McHugh; and trailblazing neuroscientist Sheila Nirenberg, winner of a MacArthur Foundation “Genius Grant.”

Today, UAlbany has a global network of more than 174,000 alumni making a difference around the world.
