Mangers: Duties and Restrictions

A manager is an individual who performs traditional managerial duties (e.g., equipment, laundry, hydration) and meets the following additional criteria:

(a) The individual shall be a full-time undergraduate or graduate student, except that during his or her final semester or quarter of a degree program, he or she may be enrolled in less than a full-time program of studies, provided he or she is carrying (for credit) the courses necessary to complete the degree requirements;

(b) The individual may participate in limited on-court or on-field activities during practice (e.g., assist with drills, throw batting practice) or competition (e.g., assist with warm-up activities) involving student-athletes on a regular basis;

(c) The individual shall not provide instruction to student-athletes; and

(d) The individual shall not participate in countable athletically related activities (e.g., practice player).

Labor Day Reminder

Please remember that if you are “out-of-season” on Labor Day, no countable athletically related activities may take place on that day as that day is an institutional holiday. If you are “in-season” during Labor Day, you may choose to practice, or if no countable activities take place on that day, if can be considered your one day off per week.

Spot the Violation Answer:

The scholarships must be prorated. Bylaw 15.3.1.3 states that institutional aid awarded after the first day of classes in any term may not exceed the remaining charges and may not be made retroactively.
