Pete Caringi Jr.- Car-in-gee
Over the past half-century, the Baltimore metropolitan region has produced some of this nation's top players and coaches at the amateur and professional levels. By virtue of UMBC's historic run to the College Cup in the fall of 2014, Pete Caringi, Jr. has surely cemented himself atop the Mount Rushmore of that elite group of men and women.

Caringi became just the third head coach in the history of Retriever Athletics to reach the quarter-century mark in tenure when the 2015 Retrievers took the field last August. Like a pied piper, he led not only the UMBC campus on the magical mystery tour with an NCAA-record four road victories by shutout in tournament play, but the Retrievers drew fervent fan support from all corners of a pride-filled Charm City.

Caringi has built his UMBC record to 276-164-65, including a mark of 86-38-25 since 2009. The Retrievers were ranked in the top five nationally in 2013 and 2014, and ended the most recent campaign at No. 4 in the country.

The Baltimore native was named UMBC's fourth head coach after 10 sensational years at Essex Community College, where he compiled an overall record of 170-27-8. He coached the Knights to the National Junior College championship game in 1984 and 1989 and was named NJCAA National Coach of the Year and Region XX Coach of the Year in both seasons.

In 1994, he was inducted into the National Junior College Athletic Hall of Fame, and in May 1998, he was inducted into the Maryland Soccer Hall of Fame. In 2009, he was a member of the second class inducted into the University of Baltimore Athletic Hall of Fame.

He and his wife, Susan, have two children, Christina, a spring 2011 UMBC graduate, and Pete III, who became UMBC’s first-ever NSCAA Division First Team All-American after his senior campaign of 2013. Petey will join his father on the sidelines full-time in 2015, serving as an assistant coach.

UMBC men's soccer opens the America East Tournament as the five seed, traveling to No. 4 Albany on Saturday. The Retrievers head back to the tournament for the first time since 2015, where they lost to Vermont in the semifinals. Most recently the Retrievers fell to Stony Brook on Wednesday, 2-0 to drop to 7-6-4 on the year.

Scouting the Retrievers (7-6-4):
- UMBC enters the tournament at 7-6-4 after dropping the regular season finale, 2-0 to Stony Brook on Wednesday. The loss was just the second at home this year with the other coming against then No. 12 Western Michigan.
- Senior Gregg Hauck (Linthicum, Md./North County) leads the team the with 11 points on four goals and three assists. Sammy Kahsai (Hyattsville, Md./Northwestern) and Kyle Saunderson (Laurel, Md./Reservoir) all have four goals this year, as ten different Retrievers have found the net in 2017.
- Freshman Ciaran O'Loughlin (Birkenhead, England) has started in every match for the Retrievers this year, stopping 59 shots (.728 save percentage), giving up 22 goals for a goals against average of 1.31.

Scouting the Great Danes (12-4-1):
- Albany is coming off a 2-0 victory against Binghamton in the regular season finale on Wednesday. Nico Solabarrieta scored both goals to move the Great Danes to 12-4-1 on the year.
- Solabarrieta and Afonso Pinheiro lead the team with seven points each, with Solabarrieta adding six assists for a team best 20 points. Pinheiro has dished out four assists to bring his point total to 18. Daniel Krutzen is the only other player with double digit points, with 12 points on three goals and six assists.
- Danny Vitellio has seen the majority of action in net for the Great Danes. He has given up just five goals (0.48 GAA) making 38 saves (.884 save percentage) with seven shutouts on the year.

All-Time Series:
- UMBC and Albany will be meeting for the 17th time in the all-time series with the Retrievers leading the series 8-5-3. Earlier this year, the Retrievers defeated the Great Danes 3-1 in Baltimore, extending their home unbeaten streak to 7-0-2.
- The two have played just one conference tournament game against each other, with UMBC coming away with a 2-1 2ot victory in 2013.

Earlier This Year vs. Albany:
- The Retrievers and Great Danes met in Baltimore back on October 14 on homecoming. Sammy Kahsai put home a penalty kick in the 30th minute to give UMBC a 1-0 lead before James Gielen () slotted home a shot early in the second half to make it 2-0.
- After an Albany goal by Afonso Pinheiro, sophomore Tre Pulliam (Baltimore, Md./Archbishop Curley) netted his second of the year in the 83rd minute to seal the win.

UMBC in the America East Tournament:
- The Retrievers will participate in their 12th in 15 league seasons.
- UMBC is 10-6-3 in 18 America East playoff matches... The Retrievers won championships in 2010 (No. 2 seed), 2012 (No. 2 seed), 2013 (No. 1 seed) and 2014 (No. 1 seed).

Up Next:
- The winner of this game will head to No. 1 Vermont on Wednesday, Nov. 8 for a 7 p.m. match with the Catamounts.

UMBC men’s soccer kicks off the 2017 season against Bryant on Friday, looking to rebound from a challenging year in 2016. The Retrievers finished the year at 5-9-3, 0-7-0 AE last year, missing the America East Tournament for the first time since 2008. However, with a young team a year ago, head coach Pete Caringi Jr., who enters his 27th season as head coach, knows the team is eager and ready to take on the talented field of league foes and get back to the America East playoffs.

“Our preseason went really well. I am proud of the way the guys trained and their competitiveness and drive during the past few weeks,” Caringi stated.

Caringi’s squad had a good preseason, taking down Bucknell 2-0 and James Madison 1-0 in their two exhibition games. They got a balanced attack from both veterans and rookies, but the thing that stood out for Caringi was the way the defense took shape.

“I was most impressed with our defense this preseason. They stepped up and have been solid together in training all preseason long,”

But playing in the America East is no easy task. The conference was the third-best conference in the NCAA a year ago, just behind the Big East and ACC. The Retriever coaching staff has put together a tough non-conference schedule, allowing the team to prepare for what is to come in conference. Coach Caringi knows that there are no easy games on the schedule, but that the team is excited and up for the test.

“Every game on or schedule is really tough, and it might be the strongest schedule since I have been here,” Caringi said. “We are playing teams that are nationally-ranked, including a game against Maryland at Retriever Soccer Park. This will allow our guys to get ready for the tough grind of America East play and gives our fans a chance to see some big name schools in a good atmosphere.”

Newcomers:
The Retrievers have welcomed seven newcomers in 2017, including a pair of junior walk-ons. A pair of the newcomers come to UMBC by way of Archbishop Curley High School in Alejandro Arbelaez and Dylan Poetzel. Both have played well in the preseason and look to make an immediate impact for the Black and Gold. Arbelaez scored a goal against Bucknell in the team’s first exhibition this summer.

“Every experience that these new guys face this year will be new to them. It’s a big adjustment from high school to the college game, but so far they have been performing well. I am impressed with the level they are at right now, and they will only continue to grow,” Caringi said of his rookies.

Also looking to make their mark in 2017 will be goalkeeper Ciaran O’Loughlin (Birkenhead, England), back Sam Solomon (Fort Meade, Md./Meade), midfielder Matt Bailey (Stevensville, Md./Saints Peter and Paul) as well as junior walk-ons midfielder Saif Arar (Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates) and back Mohamed Arar (Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates).

The Captain:
Senior Gregg Hauck (Linthicum, Md./North County), one of the last remaining members from the team’s 2014 NCAA College Cup run, will serve as team captain in 2017. Hauck has been an instrumental part of the midfield for the Retrievers for three years, and will once again be leaned on to lead the team.

“Gregg is the last starter remaining from our College Cup run. He is a leader and someone we can count on. He is a very motivated player and we are excited about him, as he has come a long way from when he first got here to now,” Caringi said.

Forwards:

Last year’s leading goal scorer Tre Pulliam (Baltimore, Md./Archbishop Curley) returns for his sophomore season after setting the stage in every game as a freshman. Pulliam scored four times with one assist for a team best nine points. Coach Caringi knows just how good Pulliam can be, and knows this could be a breakout year for him.

“Tre (Pulliam) has a great reputation in this area as a scorer from his days at Curley. He has had a great spring and we expect big things from him this year.”

Also returning for the Retrievers up top will be classmates Jordan Dove (Gambrells, Md./DeMatha) and Nick Gumbs (Clarksburg, Md./Damascus) along with junior David Harris (Waimanalo, Hawaii/Reservoir (Md.), Freshmen Alejandro Arbelaez and Sam Solomon (Fort Meade, Md./Meade) will compete for time up top as well.

Midfield:

The Retrievers welcome back their core in the midfield, led by Gregg Hauck, Sammy Kahsai (Hyattsville, Md./Northwestern), and Patrick Jean-Gilles (Woodbridge, Va./South County). All three had a hand on both the offensive and defensive ends. Hauck had a goal with three assists for five points, while Kahsai scored three times and Jean-Gilles tallied two goals and one helper.

This nucleus is the key to the Retrievers success this year, and the Retriever mentor likes the progress he has seen out of the trio. “Sammy, Patrick and Gregg have been together now for a couple years, and have made great strides together. They have to defend well and be offensive-minded to help us succeed,” Caringi said.

He also talked about the growing confidence with everyone on the team, but especially the midfield group. “Their confidence in themselves and each other has grown tremendously. Expectations are high for this group and our ultimate goal is to get back to the conference championship. They have been working hard and leading by example.”

Returning for the Retrievers in the back will be sophomore Trey Vinson (Manassas, Va./Forest Park) who saw significant time last year, junior Alex La Noire (Beltsville, Md./Good Counsel) and redshirt sophomore Tyler Ward (Atlanta, Ga./Mill Creek) who scored the game winner in an overtime win against George Washington.

A pair of newcomers, freshman Dylan Poetzel and junior Mohamed Arar, will try to earn time in the back.

Goalkeepers:

Replacing a stalwart like Billy Heavner is hard to do, but coach Caringi believes there are a trio of young keepers ready to step up to the task in net. “Billy was a leader both on and off the field for us, but we have three guys who have been motivated and are working hard to try and win that starting spot. It is still a battle, and may be a battle up until game day, but we are excited about all three.”

Two keepers, Tomas Potts (Ellicott City, Md./River Hill) and Hunter Trefny (Centreville, Va./Westfield) sat behind Heavner last season, gaining valuable experience. Garan O’Loughlin will also factor into the decision Caringi must make before opening night.

“We will play whoever is playing the best at that time and whoever gives up the best chance to win. Each one of these three can play and perform well, which is a valuable asset to have.”

Final Word:

The 2017 edition of the UMBC men’s soccer team will look to return to form that saw them win four of five America East Championships from 2010-14, including that College Cup run in 2014. Coach Caringi and his staff are happy with the way the preseason has shaped up thus far, but know that each and every game will be a challenge that this team is ready for.

“There are not easy games on this schedule, but we are preparing this team for what is to come in conference. Our ultimate goal is to get back to the conference title game, and we hope to be playing our best come October and into November.”
