Looking at Albany
The Great Danes, who are 0-1 on the young season, visit Cornell on Monday at Newman Arena at Barnes Hall.

A Win Would...
A win against the Big Red would mark the first victory for the Great Danes in 2018-19.

Last Time Out
Redshirt-junior Amanda Kantzy made a splash in her UAlbany debut with 17 points against No. 22 USF. After sitting out the 2017-18 season due to NCAA transfer rules, Kantzy brought down seven rebounds in her first start as a Great Dane. Junior Alexi Schecter earned a new career-high in blocks with four, while she and Kyara Frames dropped three dimes apiece.

Looking at UAlbany
Through just one game in 2018-19, Amanda Kantzy is leading the team with 17.0 points per game and 7.0 boards. Junior Alexi Schecter totals a team-best four blocks and three helpers.

Scouting Cornell
The Big Red opened the new season with a 72-61 setback at Binghamton on Nov. 9. In that contest, Halley Miklos and Laura Bagwell-Katalin totaled 14 points apiece. Miklos added a team-high nine rebounds in the tilt, while Samantha Widmann dished out five dimes and chipped in with nine points.

Familiar Faces
Head coaches Dayna Smith and Colleen Mullen have a connection that dates back to Mullen’s time as a
Game Notes

Collegiate student-athlete. While coaching at the University of Rhode Island, Smith recruited Mullen to play for the Rams. Mullen spent two seasons in Rhode Island before transferring to the University of New Hampshire.

Lights Out Debut
After sitting out the 2017-18 season due to NCAA transfer rules, Amanda Kantzy made the most of her long-awaited debut with a team-high 17 points at No. 22 USF. Additionally, she brought down seven boards to go along with one steal in 32 minutes played.

Oh Captain, My Captain
Senior Heather Forster returns as the team’s lone starter from a season ago. Forster, who has been apart of two America East Tournament Championships and a member of the program’s first NCAA Tournament win in 2015-16, will captain a squad that features six underclassmen.

Out of the Gate
UAlbany has registered a 24-30 record in season openers since 1964. The Great Danes fell 74-37 in their 2018-19 season opener at No. 22 USF.

New Coach(es) on the Block
On May 14, 2018 Colleen Mullen was named the 12th head women’s basketball coach in program history, and the fifth head coach in the Division I era. Mullen arrived at UAlbany after spending the previous seven seasons at Army West Point.

She is joined by Yvonne Hawkins, who returns to the sidelines at UAlbany after leaving the program following the 2002 season. Megan Methven and Catherine Cassidy enter their first season as assistant coaches while Jackie Alexander is in her first season as the Director of Operations.

Postseason Regulars
The Great Danes ended the 2017-18 season with a 76-61 loss at Penn State in WNIT. It was the seventh-straight postseason appearance for UAl-

HEAD COACH COLLEEN MULLEN
FIRST SEASON

University at Albany Director of Athletics Mark Benson announced Monday, May 14, 2018, the hiring of Colleen Mullen as the 12th head women’s basketball coach in program history, and the fifth head coach in the Great Danes’ Division I era.

Mullen arrived at UAlbany after spending the previous seven seasons at Army West Point. Mullen joined Army’s staff as an assistant coach in July 2011 and was promoted to associate head coach a year later. Mullen made her way to West Point after two years at Long Island University, where she was the top assistant and recruiting coordinator. She also spent a season as an assistant coach at Lehigh.

“I am excited to have Colleen join our coaching staff here at the Academy,” head coach Dave Magarity said upon her hiring. “She brings a wealth of experience and an infectious energy as a recruiter. She has a strong background as a teacher of the game, and her ability to work with our young backcourt will be critical for our future success as a team.”

A proven point guard as a collegiate player for both Rhode Island and New Hampshire, Mullen has continued to cultivate her expertise at the guard position since entering the coaching ranks.

At Army, Mullen worked primarily with Army’s guards. She worked closely with the Patriot League career scoring leader Kelsey Minato from 2012 to 2016 and helped lead the Black Knights to four straight 20-win seasons and four consecutive appearances in national postseason tournaments. The Black Knights reached the NCAA Tournament and earned Patriot League championships in 2016 and 2014, and played in the WNIT in 2015 and 2013.

Mullen helped the Black Knights extend their streak of 20 wins in a single season to five after Army captured 22 wins during the 2016-17 season.

Army completed the best season in team history in 2015-16, reaching a program-record 29 victories as part of a 29-3 overall record to match the Patriot League standard for most wins in a season. The 29 wins also gave the Cadets their fourth consecutive 20-win season to mark the longest streak of that kind in team history.

The Black Knights finished 17-1 in Patriot League play in 2015-16 and entered the conference tournament as the No. 1 seed. Army set a number of Patriot League records that season, including widest margin of victory (+19.5), lowest opponent scoring average (50.8), and highest three-point percentage (.410). The Black Knights also rattled of 19 wins in a row during the year to establish new Patriot League and Academy records.

Minato garnered a number of accolades during her outstanding senior season in 2015-16, including espnW Mid-Major Player of the Year, All-Met Division I Player of the Year, and being selected All-America honorable mention by the Associated Press and the Women’s Basketball Coaches Association. Minato earned her third Patriot League Player of the Year nod to join 2003 Bucknell graduate Molly Creamer as the only player in league history to do so, and become the conference’s only player to be a first-team selection all four years.

Under Mullen’s watch, Minato finished her senior campaign with an Academy-record 743 points (23.2 points per game) and become the career scoring leader for the school and the Patriot League, with 2,556 points over her four seasons.

The Black Knights drained a program-record 230 three-pointers in 2015-16, while Minato’s 108 marked the most by a single player in team history.

During the 2014-15 season, Mullen worked primarily with Army’s guards in helping lead the team to its program-record third straight appearance in a national postseason tournament, as the Black Knights reached the WNIT following berths in the NCAA Tournament and the WNIT in 2014 and 2013, respectively. Army finished the season 23-8 to mark its third straight 20-win season, also a program first.

In 2013-14, Mullen helped develop an Army backcourt that led the Black Knights to their second NCAA Tournament appearance as a Division I program.

Army’s backcourt shined in 2012-13, as Minato became the first in Patriot League history to be voted Player and Rookie of the Year, while the Black Knights had two first-team All-Patriot League selections for the first time in program history, with both honorees being guards (Minato, Anna Simmers).

The Black Knights’ high-scoring perimeter unit helped Army average its highest scoring output since 2007-08 thanks in large part to the second-most accurate three-point shooting contingent in the Patriot League. The Black Knights’ success rate beyond the arc was their highest since 2008-09, while their 158 triples were the most Army had made since 2004-05.

The Black Knight ball handlers were the most precise in the conference during Mullen’s first season as associate head coach, as Army led the Patriot League in least turnovers per game and ranked as high as ninth in the nation in the category.

During her seven-year coaching tenure prior to Army, Mullen churned out a plethora of decorated guards and secured top-rated recruiting classes. In her two seasons at Long Island, she... helped lead the Blackbirds to an appearance in the Northeast Conference finals and helped record the second-highest win total in program history with a 22-10 mark in 2009-10. She mentored two-time first team All-NEC player Ashley Palmer, while point guard Kiara Evans ranked eighth nationally in assists per game (6.4) under Mullen’s watch.

Her duties at Long Island also included managing the program’s budget, overseeing the assistant coaching staff, coordinating all on and off campus recruitment and serving as the academic coordinator. The Blackbirds successfully improved their overall team grade-point average from a 2.84 in 2010 to a 3.19 in 2011. A proven recruiter, her first recruiting class was ranked 88th nationally by All-Star Girls Basketball Report.

Prior to her tenure at Long Island, Mullen spent 2007-08 at Lehigh, where she oversaw player development with an emphasis on the backcourt. During her short stint at Lehigh, she guided three of the program’s top guards - Erica Prosser, Tricia Smith and Alex Ross - to All-Patriot League selections. All three players went on to garner major Patriot League honors and help Lehigh to back-to-back conference titles.

In addition to her coaching duties at Lehigh, she also oversaw compliance, marketing, team travel, equipment, academics, alumni relations, community outreach, facilities and game management.

Mullen spent 2005-07 as the top assistant at Southern New Hampshire after serving as the director of basketball operations at Northern Illinois in 2004-05.

As a player, Mullen spent two seasons at Rhode Island, leading her team in assists each year before transferring to New Hampshire. A two-year captain, she was one of the top feeders in Wildcat history and finished her two-year career with 218 assists, the 14th-highest mark in school history. Mullen was named to the America East Academic Honor Roll in each of her two seasons.

Mullen received a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from New Hampshire in 2003. She earned her a Master of Business Administration degree from Southern New Hampshire in 2006.

Mullen and her wife, Lauren, reside in Bethlehem, N.Y., and have three children: Maggie (3) and twin sons, Brennan & Callan (1).
