SETTING THE SCENE
Following a hard-fought defeat against Monmouth in Tuesday’s season opener, the Lehigh men’s basketball team hits the road for the first time when it heads to Albany on Saturday. Opening tipoff against the Great Danes is set for 7 p.m. on ESPN3. The Mountain Hawks fell behind by 16 points in the first half Tuesday, but fought back to within nine at the half. They trimmed the deficit all the way down to one late in the second half, but couldn’t get over the hump.

Lehigh’s defense rebounded from a tough start on Tuesday. After Monmouth scored 33 points over the game’s first 12:44, the Mountain Hawks allowed just 33 points over the final 27:16. Lehigh held the Hawks to just 23 second-half points on only 25 percent shooting (7-of-28). Offensively, Lehigh went on a 7-0 run to end the first half, the final five points scored by sophomore Jeameril Wilson.

Freshman Evan Taylor paced the offense with 15 points, 13 coming in the second half. He shot 5-of-11 from the floor, including 2-of-2 from three-point range. Those 15 points were most by a Lehigh player in his collegiate debut since Austin Price also had 15 in his debut on Nov. 8, 2013 at Minnesota.

Three others reached double-figure points by the Mountain Hawks. Junior James Karnik tallied 13 points and 11 rebounds for his seventh-career double-double, nine points and seven rebounds coming in the second half. He also recorded three blocks and took two charges over the final 20 minutes as well. Senior Jordan Cohen scored 13 points as well, adding seven assists, four rebounds and two steals. In the process, he eclipsed 250 career assists (currently 251). Junior Marques Wilson contributed 10 points, five rebounds, two assists and a steal.

As a team, Lehigh shot well from three-point range. Last season’s national leader from long distance was 8-of-17 for 47.1 percent. Six different players knocked down a trey, including the first-career points (both first-half three-pointers) from freshmen Jake Betlow and Reed Fenton.

Lehigh will be vying for its first-ever road win against Albany (home teams have won all six previous meetings). Albany is Lehigh’s first America East opponent since Dec. 6, 2016, a 62-57 loss at Stony Brook. The Mountain Hawks have also won their first road games of the season in each of the past two years (at Marist and at Monmouth), hoping to make it three consecutive seasons on Saturday.

TONIGHT'S GAME

The all-time series between Lehigh and Albany is tied at three, with the last meeting coming on Dec. 8, 2008. The Mountain Hawks won that contest, 65-64, behind an offensive rebound and put back by Zahir Carrington with one second to go. The last meeting at Albany was a 78-66 Great Danes' victory the year prior. The teams first met on Jan. 8, 2000, a 75-74 Lehigh victory. The home teams in the all-time series are 3-0. Two of the three meetings at Albany went to overtime.

LAST MEETING

BETHELHEM, Pa. (12/8/18) - Junior Zahir Carrington grabbed an offensive rebound and laid the ball up and in with one second remaining to lift Lehigh to a dramatic 65-64 come-from-behind victory over Albany on Monday evening at Stabler Arena. The Mountain Hawks trailed 50-35 with 15:47 remaining in the contest, but out-scored the Great Danes 30-14 down the stretch to improve to 6-3 on the season. Junior Marquis Hall netted a game-high 23 points for the Mountain Hawks, while sophomore Michael Ojo came off the bench and drilled four second half three-pointers en route to 12 points in the win.

LAST TIME OUT

BETHELHEM, Pa. (11/5/19) - The Lehigh men's basketball team trimmed an early 16-point hole down to one late in the second half, but Monmouth immediately answered with an 8-0 run, on the way to downing the Mountain Hawks 66-62 in the season opener for both sides Tuesday evening in Stabler Arena. Junior James Karnik was stellar, posting his 13 points and 11 rebounds for his seventh-career double-double. Freshman Evan Taylor scored a team-high 15 points in his collegiate debut.

SCOUTING ALBANY

Albany struggled last season, finishing 12-20 and 7-5 in America East play. Picked fourth in this year’s preseason poll, the Great Danes featured a young roster, with five of the eight players who started games being freshmen. Leading scorer Cameron Healy returns in 2019-20 after averaging 16.0 points and 3.8 rebounds his freshman campaign. Senior Ahmad Clark averaged 15.7 points and an America East leading 4.3 assists per contest, and was recently named to the 2019-20 Lou Henson Award Preseason Watch List, presented annually to the nation’s top Division I mid-major basketball player. Albany is just two years removed from a 22-10 season in 2017-18.

IF LEHIGH BEATS ALBANY

- Lehigh would win its first road game of the season for a third consecutive year.
- The Mountain Hawks would become the first team in the all-time series to win on the other’s home floor.
- Lehigh would improve to 17-13 all-time against the America East.
- Lehigh would improve to 29-13 overall over its last 42 games dating back to the end of the 2017-18 season.

SUSTAINED SUCCESS

- Lehigh has enjoyed an impressive success, especially over the last 10 years (2010-19), earning a Patriot League Quarterfinal home game in nine of those seasons.
- Over the last 10 years, the Mountain Hawks are second in the league in number of tournament championships (two), second in average finish (2.80) and second in quarterfinal home games (nine).
- Lehigh is also second in number of Patriot League (regular season) victories (102) and number of double-figure win seasons (seven).
- Over the last seven years (even without current NBA standout C.J. McCollum), the Mountain Hawks still stand second in total (regular season) Patriot League victories in that span with 75.
- Lehigh is one of just two teams to post 10+ Patriot League regular season victories in each of the last five years.

COHEN, KARNIK, LIEB NAMED CAPTAINS

Heac coach Brett Reed announced the Mountain Hawks’ 2019-20 captains on Wednesday, which include seniors Jordan Cohen and Jack Lieb, and junior James Karnik. The three will lead the team into its season opener next Tuesday, Nov. 5 at home vs. Monmouth. Cohen is Lehigh’s leading returning scorer after averaging 13.6 points during his junior campaign. Among his many highlights was back-to-back games with 30+ points – at Boston University and home vs. Lafayette. A strong all-around student-athlete, Cohen was named third team All-Patriot League for his on-court success while also garnering Academic All-League for a second straight season. Additionally, Cohen was named a Google Cloud Academic All-District honoree, the program’s first honoree since 2009. Karnik is the Mountain Hawks’ other returning starter from last season, averaging 9.3 points and 6.1 rebounds per contest. He was especially impressive in Patriot League play, averaging 11.4 points for the game and 6.6 boards. The team’s Coaches Award winner, Karnik tied for eighth in the league in rebounding and was fourth in field goal percentage (59.2, 113-of-191). Lieb has not seen action in his Lehigh career due to injury, but has continued to make his presence felt as a veteran, so much so that his teammates helped make him a captain this season.

2018-19 Season Highlights
- Lehigh’s 7-4 non-league record was its best since 2012-2013.
- Lehigh hosted a Patriot League Quarterfinal game (top four finish in league standings) for the ninth time in the last 10 years.
- Lehigh recorded its 10th winning season in the past 11 years. Prior to this run, the program had just 10 winning seasons total since the 1932-1933 season.
- The Mountain Hawks are one of just two teams to post double-digit Patriot League regular season victories over the past five years.
- Head coach Brett Reed and his staffs surpassed 200 career wins, becoming only the fourth coach in Patriot League history to reach the milestone (and the fastest to do so).
- Lehigh was one of only three teams in the top 20 nationally for field goal percentage, three-point field goal percentage and free throw percentage.

National Ranks:
- 1st in 3pt FG%, 11th in FT%, 20th FG%

Patriot League Ranks:
- 1st in Scoring, FG%, 3pt FG%, FT%, FG% Defense, Defensive Rebounds, 3pt Made Per Game (Tie); 2nd in Rebounding Offense
- Lehigh’s 42.3 three-point percentage was a Patriot League record, breaking the previous mark of 41.8 held by Holy Cross in 1990-91.
- Lance Tejada was named a candidate for the national Senior CLASS Award. The award focuses on four areas of excellence – community, classroom, character and competition. Tejada marked Lehigh’s eighth candidate in the past eleven years.
- Tejada tied a school-record with 10 made three-pointers at Holy Cross, tying Joe Knight and teammate Pat Andree.
- The Mountain Hawks featured one first team All-League honoree (Tejada) and two third-team honorees (Jordan Cohen and Kyle Leufroy). Lehigh has had three All-League honorees three times in the last four years. Prior to that, it happened just one other time in program history.
- Leufroy became the first player in program history to finish his career 8-0 vs. Lafayette. Leufroy went on to finish 8-0 against American as well. Ironically, the year before Leufroy arrived at Lehigh, Lafayette vs. American was the Patriot League Championship Game matchup.
- Lehigh finished 5-3 in February to extend its February mark to 27-5 (84.4 win percentage) since February 2018.
COACH REED PUTTING UP THE W’S

Head coach Brett Reed reached 100-career Patriot League (regular season) wins last season, becoming just the fourth coach in league history to reach that plateau. Below is the list. Reed tied Jeff Jones of American coach for fastest to reach 100. However, for both Flannery and Jones, it took fewer games to reach 100.

Here is where Reed stands among Patriot League laurels for total wins and Patriot League victories. Reed’s 7-4 nonleague record in 2018-19 was its best since 2012-13 when it finished 10-3, one year before going 7-6 in 2013-14. The Mountain Hawks’ only losses last season came to three power-conference opponents (Miami, Kansas State and West Virginia) along with Ivy League power Yale. Among Lehigh’s victories was a win over another strong Ivy League squad Princeton, while also beating preseason NEC favorite Saint Francis (Pa.).

NONLEAGUE SUCCESS

Lehigh’s 7-4 nonleague record in 2018-19 was its best since 2012-13 when it finished 10-3, one year before going 7-6 in 2013-14. The Mountain Hawks’ only losses last season came to three power-conference opponents (Miami, Kansas State and West Virginia) along with Ivy League power Yale. Among Lehigh’s victories was a win over another strong Ivy League squad Princeton, while also beating preseason NEC favorite Saint Francis (Pa.).

THE BEST THINGS IN LIFE ARE FREE

Year after year, Lehigh has excelled at the charity stripe. In 2016-17, the Mountain Hawks knocked down 77.2 percent from the line (448-of-580), good for 12th in the nation. In 2017-18, the Mountain Hawks shot 77.7 percent (373-of-480), first in the Patriot League and 12th in the nation. Last year, Lehigh shot 77.4 percent (480-of-620), 11th in the nation.

So far this year, the Mountain Hawks are shooting 66.7 percent (6-of-9).

HOME SWEET STABLER

The Mountain Hawks have won 15 of their last 20, 58 of their last 87, 80 of their last 113 and 93 of their last 131 in the friendly confines of Stabler Arena. They had an 11-game home win streak snapped vs. Bryant on Dec. 29, 2012 and an eight-game winning streak snapped on Jan. 5, 2014 against Boston University. Lehigh also had an eight-game home winning streak snapped during the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game.

Here’s a look at Lehigh’s home success since the start of the 2002-03 season:

MCCOLLUM STARRING FOR TRAIL BLAZERS

- Former Lehigh standout C.J. McCollum is starring in his seventh NBA season with the Portland Trail Blazers.
- McCollum is currently averaging 20.9 points per game this season (before games Nov. 8). That number is currently good for 24th in the NBA. McCollum averaged 20+ points per game each of the previous four years as one of the NBA’s most elite scorers.

2019-20 Season Highlights

- McCollum scored 35 points on Oct. 27 at Dallas, knocking down 13-of-26 from the field and 8-of-8 from the free throw line.

2018-19 Season Highlights

- Among many highlights, McCollum scored 40 points against Milwaukee on Nov. 6, the most points ever scored by the Trail Blazers against the Bucks.
- McCollum scored 35 points in just 28 minutes on Dec. 30 vs. Philadelphia, shooting 13-of-18 from the field.
- McCollum recorded his first-career triple-double on Saturday, Jan. 26 vs. Atlanta, posting 28 points, 10 rebounds and 10 assists in a 120-111 win.

- During the 2017-18 season, McCollum was the talk of the NBA on Jan. 31, 2018 when he scored a career-high 30 points vs. Chicago. McCollum set a Portland franchise record for points in a quarter with 28 in the first. It also marked the most points any NBA player scored in a quarter this season. McCollum went on to tally 50 points on 18-of-25 shooting, including 6-of-9 from three-point range. It came in just 29 minutes as McCollum didn’t play the fourth quarter with the Trail Blazers leading comfortably. He became just the second NBA player in the shot clock era (along with Golden State’s Klay Thompson) to score 50+ points in less than 30 minutes.

- On June 27, 2013, McCollum became the first player in school history to be selected in the NBA Draft. He declared for the 2012 draft, but officially withdrew from the NBA Draft on Monday, Apr. 9, 2012 to return to Lehigh for his senior season. McCollum went on to write a piece published on Sportsing News’ website titled “Why I’m returning to Lehigh for my senior year,” citing earning his degree as one of the primary reasons.

STRONG IN THE CLASSROOM

- The Mountain Hawks take a lot of pride in their academic performance.
- Last spring, seven Mountain Hawks were named to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll - Shane Acoverno (3.55, Computer Science), Pat Andree (3.50, Psychology), Jordan Cohen (4.0, Finance), Joe Foley (4.0, Business), Jack Lieb (3.25, Finance), Ed Porter (3.47, Sociology) and David Roelke (3.70, Political Science).
- Both Andree and Cohen have been named to the five-member Academic All-Patriot League team each of the last two seasons. Prior to last year, Lehigh had never featured more than one student-athlete on the team.
- Cohen was also named 2019 Google Cloud Academic All-District. Lehigh had not had a student-athlete named to a Google Cloud Academic All-District team since Marquis Hall in 2009.

DOUBLE THE PRODUCTION

- Lehigh has one double-double this season. Here’s a rundown:
  - vs. Monmouth (Nov. 8): James Karnik
- The Mountain Hawks posted nine double-doubles last season, three from Nic Lynch (at Miami on Nov. 9, vs. Princeton on Nov. 16 and at Loyola on Mar. 2), two from Pat Andree (vs. Marist on Nov. 13 and vs. Lafayette on Jan. 2), two from James Karnik (vs. Loyola on Jan. 6) and two from Kyle Leufroy (at Holy Cross on Jan. 9 and at Army on Feb. 2).

OFFENSIVE JUGGERNAUT

Lehigh is consistently near the top of the Patriot League in scoring, leading the way in 2009-10 (75.1 PPG), 2010-11 (73.6), 2011-12 (75.7) and 2012-13 (73.1). In 2016-17, the Mountain Hawks finished second (76.0 points per game) before finishing second again last season (77.9). Every other year in between, Lehigh has finished in the top half of the league in scoring.

Last year, the Mountain Hawks averaged 80.0 points per game, first in the Patriot League.

BRETT REED
Head Coach
13th Year as Lehigh Head Coach

The 2019-20 season is Dr. Brett Reed’s 13th as the Murray H. Goodman ’48 Head Men’s Basketball Coach at Lehigh University. In 12 years on the sideline, Reed has won more than 70 percent of his games in Lehigh history and has won nine Patriot League championships. During the 2012-13 season, Reed won his 100th career game and became the fastest coach to 100 wins in the history of the Patriot League. The same season, he also became the all-time winningest coach in school history. Early in the 2018-19 season, he reached 200 career victories. Reed is the Patriot League’s second longest-tenured coach. Reed owns a 38.1 career Division I winning percentage, good for sixth in Patriot League history and second among active coaches. Reed’s 218 overall wins, and 114 Patriot League victories, are both third in league history. Reed has consistently won at Lehigh, eclipsing 20 wins three times in a four-year span from 2009-13, which also included three national postseason appearances. The Mountain Hawks twice won the Patriot League and advanced to the NCAA Tournament while advancing to the College Basketball Invitational in 2013. Lehigh reached back-to-back Patriot League Championship Games in 2016 and 2017, and in eight seasons in eight seasons the Mountain Hawks played in the title game. In 2018-19, Reed led Lehigh to 20 victories for the fifth time in 10 years, finishing in the top four of the league standings in nine of the last 10 seasons. Reed’s teams have played their best basketball when it matters, posting a 22-2 record in February between 2016 and 2018 (9-0 in 2016, 6-2 in 2017 and 7-0 in 2018). Counting last season, the Mountain Hawks are 27-5 in February dating back to 2016, a 13-5 month during Reed’s head coaching career. Lehigh has developed plenty of impressive talent in Reed’s tenure, led by two-time All-American and Patriot League Player of the Year C.J. McCollum ’13 who was selected 10th overall by the Portland Trail Blazers in the 2013 NBA Draft and has developed into an NBA star. McCollum has finished at or near the top 20 in the NBA in scoring each of the last three seasons (23.0 points per game in 2016-17, 21.4 in 2017-18 and 21.0 in 2018-19). Tim Kempton ’17 was a two-time Patriot League Player of the Year, who was invited to play for the Milwaukee Bucks in the NBA Summer League following graduation, leading to a professional contract overseas. Reed has recruited at an extremely effective rate, having secured five of the last 12 Patriot League Rookies of the Year along with many alumni playing professionally overseas.

Reed will be most remembered for the 2011-12 season, when the Mountain Hawks posted a school-record 27 wins, along with the program’s third Patriot League Championship (and second in the three years). The highlight was a historic 75-70 NCAA Tournament win over Duke, becoming only the sixth No. 15 seed to ever beat a No. 2 seed and second in the same day (Norfolk State defeated Missouri just hours earlier). McCollum led the way with 30 points as Lehigh never trailed by more than five and was leading for much of the game. Mountain Hawks’ largest lead came in the final minute (eight) as the squad always had an answer for the Blue Devils’ runs.

That game helped put the Lehigh men’s basketball program squarely on the map as over the ensuing days, the Mountain Hawks were featured in an endless number of national media outlets including SportsCenter, ESPN Radio, Fox Sports Radio, Sports Illustrated, USA Today and much more. The Mountain Hawks entered the following season ranked among the mid-major’s best teams by numerous outlets. The 2011-12 season also featured a school record for nonleague wins (12), the Mountain Hawks shattered the program’s previous win record of 22 (also set by a Reed-led team). Along the way, Lehigh played tough against power conference foes, including NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed Michigan State when the Mountain Hawks held a 38-35 lead at the half.

The Mountain Hawks earned two more wins against power conference foes during the 2014-15 season as Lehigh took a big step forward in its quest to return to championship contention. The Mountain Hawks’ season was highlighted by two wins over power conference opponents DePaul and Arizona State, and a tight loss to eventual No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament Villanova. After a slow start to Patriot League play, the Mountain Hawks rebounded by winning seven-of-eight games midway through the league schedule. Late in the season, Lehigh dominated eventual regular season champion Bucknell to clinch a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals.

Several individuals took their play to new levels in 2014-15, highlighted by Kempton who was named the league’s Player of the Year as just a sophomore. Along with Kempton, freshman Kahlorn Ross became the Mountain Hawks’ fifth Patriot League Rookie of the Year in the previous nine seasons, along with Marquis Hall (2007), Rob Keefer (2008), McCollum (2010) and Kempton (2014). Ross set a single-game record with 14 assists in Lehigh’s thrilling win at Arizona State.

Lehigh rebounded from a slow start in 2015-16 winning 11 straight games beginning in early February, tying the program’s 90-year school record. The Mountain Hawks surged to the No. 2 seed in the league tournament and went on to host the quarterfinals, semifinals and championship game. It marked the sixth time in seven seasons that Lehigh has played at University at Albany at the tournament game at home. The Mountain Hawks wrapped up an undefeated February, their first undefeated month since November of 1993. When all was said and done, Lehigh finished the season with a school-record 13 Patriot League victories.

Kempton and Ross were each named first team All-Patriot League, marking the first time in school history Lehigh has featured multiple first team honorees. Ross broke the school’s single-season record for assists (194), by Mackey McKnight, and made the team’s first appearance in the league tournament for the second straight season. McCollum was named Patriot League Player of the Year for the second straight season, becoming just the third player in league history to earn the honor twice before his senior season. The others were McCollum and Colgate’s Adonal Foyle. As a team, Lehigh finished the season fifth nationally in three-point percentage (39.2).

The Mountain Hawks finished the 2016-17 season with a 20-12 record, tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston College in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh’s wins was an 87-73 win at Mississippi State, the program’s first-ever victory over the SEC. The Mountain Hawks also defeated eventual Ivy League Champion Princeton as one of four wins over NCAA Tournament teams. Kempton led the league in points (20.4) and rebounds (10.4) and was named a Final Five Finalist for Kareem-Abdul Jabbar National Center of the Year. He also became Lehigh’s first-ever participant in the 2017 Reese’s® Division I College All-Star Game, going on to score a game-high 21 points.

In 2017-18, Lehigh graduated over 4,000 points and 1,600 rebounds from the previous year, but still found itself near the top of the league standings. The Mountain Hawks won eight straight games to end the regular season tied for third place in the league. Among the victories was a thrilling overtime win over Bucknell in early February, handing the eventual Patriot League Champion its last defeat until the NCAA Tournament. Lehigh finished the season 4-1 in overtime. Ross finished his career as the Lehigh and Patriot League all-time career leader for assists. He was named second team All-Patriot League, becoming the program’s first-ever four-time All-League honoree. Ross also became the first student-athlete in program history to finish his career 4-0 at archival Lafayette. In one stretch, Lehigh exceeded 30 percent from three-point range in six straight games. The Mountain Hawks finished 10th in the Patriot League in three-point percentage (32.6) and 10-0-11, finishing the year 40.6 percent as a team, for good as nationally.

The hot shooting continued in 2018-19 as Lehigh knocked down 42.3 percent of its three-pointers, leading the nation and almost a full percent more than any other team in the country. It also marked a Patriot League record. The Mountain Hawks finished the year 20-11 and 12-6 in league play, their fifth straight season with 10+ Patriot League victories. Lehigh’s 7-4 nonleague record was its best since 2011-12. Lance Tejada received All-League recognition for the second straight season, becoming first-team laurels for the first time. The Mountain Hawks did not lose two straight games all season, showing strong resiliency and an ability to bounce back. In the Patriot League Quarterfinals vs. Army, Lehigh came back from a double-figure second-half deficit to advance, marking the Mountain Hawks’ third double-figure second-half comeback against the Black Knights of the season. In the Patriot League opener at Holy Cross, Lehigh erased an 18-point deficit to beat the Crusaders in overtime, the largest comeback in Reed’s head coaching tenure. In the first round, Keene ered the Mountain Hawks, Kempton did not score his team against Army West Point.

Another impressive season under Reed came in 2012-13 when the Mountain Hawks finished 21-10 and played in a national postseason tournament for a second straight season and third time in four years. Lehigh began the season with an 87-73 win over Bucknell to clinch a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals. Lehigh lost 90-75 win at North Texas.

Lehigh went on to earn a 19-point deficit at Army West Point.

Lehigh went on to earn a 19-point deficit at Army West Point.
posted a 10-4 record in league play to tie for second in the league standings. Reed picked up his 100th career win in style as the Mountain Hawks defeated Fairleigh Dickinson, 102-62. He went on to post his school record-breaking victory in a 72-43 win at Navy. Following the season, McCollum, the Patriot League’s all-time leading scorer, became the first player in school history and second in league history selected in the NBA Draft.

Reed’s first Patriot League Title as head coach came in 2009-10 when he led the Mountain Hawks to their second Patriot League Tournament Championship, first outright regular season league title, the most wins in school history (at the time) and the most-ever wins at Stabler Arena. The Mountain Hawks also led the Patriot League in scoring offense, scoring margin, three-point percentage, assist-to-turnover ratio and defensive rebounds. Their 220 made three-pointers established a new school record, later broken just four seasons later when Lehigh knocked down 235 in 2013-14. The 2009-10 team also set a mark for the most dominant run in the Patriot League Tournament’s history, winning every game by 15 points or more. They also excelled in the classroom. Lehigh’s starting five of Dave Buchberger, Zahir Carrington, Hall, McCollum and Gabe Knutson achieved an average grade point average of 3.2.

During Reed’s second season at the helm in 2008-09 season, the Mountain Hawks continued to build upon the solid foundation established at the beginning of his Lehigh career. The accomplishments included the most overall road wins since 1991 and the school’s first-ever victory over a Big East foe. Hall went onto become Lehigh’s first-ever Patriot League Men’s Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year, while Carrington was the school’s first All-District selection since 1988.

In his first season as a collegiate head coach, Reed led the Mountain Hawks to the third most wins for a first-year headman in the 108-season history of Lehigh Basketball. Reed mentored the Mountain Hawks’ second consecutive Patriot League Rookie of the Year in Keever as Lehigh became the first school in the league to accomplish that feat. In addition, Reed oversaw a defensive unit that held league foe Bucknell to just 39 points on February 27, 2008 - the second fewest points ever allowed by the Brown and White since the inception of Patriot League play in 1990.

Reed has recruited and developed some excellent basketball talent over the course of his career at Lehigh. In addition to McCollum and several Rookie of the Year performers, there have been a host of others who have enjoyed individual accomplishments and recognition. Lehigh has also featured high-level performers in the classroom and community as well. Hall was named the Patriot League Scholar-Athlete of the Year in consecutive seasons while Knutson was a three-time Academic All-Patriot League performer. Andree and Jordan Cohen were named Academic All-League in 2017-18. Hall, McCollum and Kempton have been named finalists for the Senior CLASS Award while Knutson, Corey Schaefer, Austin Price and Tejada have been named candidates for the prestigious award.

Reed was named Lehigh’s head coach on August 10, 2007. He had been an assistant at Lehigh for the previous five years, serving as associate head coach for the 2006-07 campaign. Prior to his time at Lehigh, Reed served as the top assistant coach at High Point University in North Carolina for two seasons. Reed was an integral part of the coaching staff that led the Panthers to the Big South Championship Game in 2002. Included in that two-year period, Reed recruited a Big South Rookie of the Year and a Player of the Year.

Reed spent the 1999-2000 season as the Director of Basketball Operations at the University of North Carolina - Greensboro. He began his collegiate coaching career at Oakland (Mich.) Community College where he was an assistant for his father’s program.

A native of Waterford, Michigan, Reed attended Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Florida where he contributed at point guard and helped lead his team to a conference championship and NCAA Tournament appearance. Reed graduated with honors, earning his Bachelor’s degree in 1995 before earning his Master’s at Wayne State in 1998. In 2003, Reed received his Ph.D. from Wayne State University in Instructional Technology with a Cognate in Sports Administration. He is one of only two Division I men’s basketball head coaches in the entire nation to have earned their doctorate degrees. Reed was also honored during his academic career with a number of awards including the prestigious Thomas C. Rumbell Fellowship.

Reed and his wife Kindra reside in Bethlehem with their sons Brendan and Calvin, and daughter Makenna.

WHAT THEY’RE SAYING ABOUT COACH REED

“Brett Reed is an excellent basketball coach. In just a few years, he has led the resurgence of Lehigh basketball and turned it into a power from the Patriot League. He’s building a program that can withstand one of sport’s ultimate challenges – the test of time. It is undoubtedly an impressive accomplishment.”

- Mike Krzyzewski, Duke University and U.S. National Team Head Coach

“I’ve known Brett Reed for over 10 years, and was fortunate to have him on my staff and watch him develop as a coach. I strongly believe Brett is one of the best young coaches in the country. His performance in 2011-12 was as good as or better than anyone in our profession. He’s an excellent basketball coach on the floor, has incredible demeanor on the sideline and has proven that he is a top-notch recruiter.”

- Fran McCaffery, former Lehigh and current University of Iowa Head Coach

“I am very proud of the success Brett has enjoyed as the head men’s basketball coach at Lehigh University. Brett is extremely intelligent, hard-working and passionate about the game of basketball and is a terrific role model for the young men in his program. I am excited for what Brett has been able to accomplish in his short time as the head coach at Lehigh and am confident that he will continue to be successful for many years to come.”

- Billy Taylor, former Lehigh and Head Coach and current University of Iowa Director of Operations

“Brett Reed is respected by our student-athletes, he is an excellent teacher and communicator and has been an extremely productive recruiter. I admire his values, his work ethic, his energy and his devotion to our players, their education and their experience.”

- Joe Sterrett, Lehigh Murray H. Goodman Dean of Athletics

In Morra’s four seasons at Lehigh, the Mountain Hawks have gone 73-51, playing in two Patriot League Championship games, winning 20 games twice and accumulating double-figure league victories all four seasons. Lehigh has also earned a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals every season, extending its streak to nine time in the last 10 seasons.

In his first season at Lehigh, Morra helped lead the Mountain Hawks to the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game. Lehigh won its final nine regular season games and saw its winning streak reach 11 (to tie a school record) after wins over Navy and American in the Patriot League Quarterfinals and Semifinals, respectively. The Mountain Hawks hosted the league championship game for the first time since 2010, reaching the title game for the third time in seven seasons.

Lehigh followed in 2017-18 by reaching its second straight title game. The Mountain Hawks finished 20-12, finishing the regular season tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh’s wins was an 87-73 win at Mississippi State, the program’s first-ever victory over the SEC. In the end, Tim Kempton led the league in averaging 15.5 points and 10.4 rebounds per contest, both numbers named First Team All-Patriot League for Kareem Abdul-Jabbar National Center of the Year. He was also Lehigh’s first-ever participant in the Reese’s Division I College All-Star Game, going on to score a game-high 21 points.

In 2017-18, Lehigh graduated over 4,000 points and 1,600 rebounds from the previous year, but still found itself near the top of the league standings. The Mountain Hawks won eight straight games to end the regular season, seven coming in February, to tie for third place in the league standings. In Morra’s tenure as Lehigh assistant coach, the Mountain Hawks are 22-2 in the month of February (9-0 in 2016, 6-2 in 2017 and 7-0 in 2018). In one stretch, Lehigh shot 50 percent from the field over six games in the month of February (9-0 in 2016, 6-2 in 2017 and 7-0 in 2018). In one stretch, Lehigh shot 50 percent from the field over six games in February to improve to 22-2 over the last three Februaries.

In Hightower’s three seasons at Lehigh, the Mountain Hawks have gone 56-36, playing in a Patriot League Championship game, winning 20 games twice and accumulating double-figure league victories all three seasons. In his first season at Lehigh, Hightower managed day-to-day operations of the program as Lehigh advanced to its second straight Patriot League Championship Game.

Hightower helped coach a young team in 2017-18, which graduated over 4,000 points and 1,600 rebounds from the previous year, but still found itself near the top of the league standings. The Mountain Hawks won eight straight games to end the regular season tied for third place in the league, earning a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals. Among Lehigh’s victories was its first-ever win over Duke. Morra was responsible for film exchange, advanced scouting and game/practice video breakdown.

Morra has worked camps at Duke, Villanova and Lehigh. After college, he joined the program as video coordinator during the 2011-12 season, which featured an NCAA Tournament berth and a Patriot League Championship game win over Duke. Morra was responsible for film exchange, advanced scouting and game/practice video breakdown.

Morra and his wife Kelly Lyons reside in Bethlehem with their four-year old son Marcus.
Greg Tarca enters his second season on staff in 2019-20 and first as Director of Basketball Operations after serving as Video Coordinator in 2018-19. Tarca came to Lehigh after graduating from Quinnipiac in May of 2018 as a four-year member of the men’s basketball program.

The Mountain Hawks’ Sixth Man Award winner in his first season with the program, Tarca played an integral role in video breakdown. Lehigh finished the 2018-19 season with a 20-11 record, 12-6 in league play, their fifth straight season with 10+ Patriot League victories. The Mountain Hawks also finished top four in the final standings, earning a quarterfinal home game for the ninth time in the last 10 years. Also in 2018-19, Lehigh knocked down 42.3 percent of its three-pointers, leading the nation and almost a full percent better than any other team in the country. It also marked a Patriot League record.

Tarca played in 18 career games for Quinnipiac, earning a full scholarship in December of his senior year after spending four years as a walk-on. Tarca started his Senior Day game vs. Saint Peter’s and scored a layup in the game’s final minute.

His impact went far beyond the court, which included serving as legislative chair of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. Tarca led a group of student-athletes in weekly meetings, spoke on behalf of the organization and more.

Despite being fresh out of college, Tarca does have experience as a supervisor/coach at the Grundy Hoops Academy, facilitating basketball clinics for students ages eight to 16 and teaching fundamental basketball skills. Tarca has also interned at The Hoop Group, assisting in the recruitment of future campers nation-wide, building relationships with high school, college and AAU coaches, and assisting with logistics, planning and day-to-day operations of camps.

Billy Dunn begins his third season on the Lehigh men’s basketball staff, serving as Student-Athlete Support and Enrichment Coordinator. Dunn has previously served as Director of Operations and Enrichment.

In his first season at Lehigh, Dunn served as a resource for the Mountain Hawks’ players and coaches, speaking into concepts of character and leadership while running a pregame chapel for those interested. Lehigh posted an eight-game winning streak to end the regular season, tying for third place in the league standings and earning a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals for the eighth time in the last nine years. Dunn received the team’s Sixth Man of the Year Award at its annual end-of-year banquet.

Dunn expanded his role in 2018-19, serving as Director of Operations and Enrichment. He continued to serve as a resource for the members of the program, running things such as a pregame chapel, while also coordinating the daily operations of the program such as travel.

Dunn has worked locally in the Lehigh Valley in the game of basketball. He has served as assistant boys basketball coach at both Liberty High School and Allentown Central Catholic for five years each. Dunn was head girls basketball coach at Emmaus High School for three years and co-founder of Push The Rock in Emmaus, Pa. leading basketball camps and coaching internationally. The organization’s vision is to be a global leader in sports ministry.

Dunn earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Bible and Secondary Education from Cairn University, before going on to earn his Master of Science in Organizational Leadership, also from Cairn. He went on to serve as a chaplain in professional sports for over eight years, including in the Philadelphia Phillies’ organization. Dunn is currently a senior consultant with The Center Consulting Group. The Center Consulting Group provides strategic coaching and planning to leaders and organizations. He has also served as a professor at Cairn University in Organizational Leadership and Spiritual Formation Pastor at Faith Church.

WHY LEHIGH? “I chose Lehigh because I wanted to go to a place where the coaches and staff would hold me accountable for my own responsibilities, on and off the court. Lehigh had a very high academic resume, which was very influential in my decision, because my mom was always a person who continually preached to me that basketball never lasts forever and there has to be a plan B. So academically, I knew if I had put in the work, I would have an advantage in the workplace because of my experience at Lehigh. But, I also chose Lehigh because the coaches were going to do do whatever it took for me to improve and were going to give me the opportunity to perform at my best.”

GAME 1 - NOV. 5, 2019
STABLER ARENA
MONMOUTH 66, LEHIGH 62

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – The Lehigh men’s basketball team trimmed an early 16-point hole down to one late in the second half, but Monmouth immediately answered with an 8-0 run, on the way to downing the Mountain Hawks 66-62 in the season opener for both sides Tuesday evening in Stabler Arena. Junior James Karnik was stellar, posting his 13 points and 11 rebounds for his seventh-career double-double. Freshman Evan Taylor scored a team-high 15 points in his collegiate debut.

Karnik came alive in the second half, posting nine points and seven boards over the final 20 minutes. Karnik also had three blocks and took two charges, all in the second half as well.

Meanwhile, Taylor’s 15 points came on 5-of-11 shooting, 2-of-2 from 3-point range and 3-of-3 from the free throw line. Taylor was one of five Mountain Hawk first-years to see action and one of three to score points in their first collegiate games.

Senior Jordan Cohen added 13 points, seven assists and four rebounds while junior Marques Wilson had 10 points and five boards to round out Mountain Hawks with double-figure points.

A back-and-forth first few minutes saw neither team lead by more than four. But after Karnik put the Mountain Hawks up 10-9 with 15:09 on the clock, Monmouth staged a big 17-0 run – capped off by a Deion Hammonds 3-pointer – to give the Hawks a 26-10 advantage with 10:38 left in the first half.

Lehigh slowly chipped away from there, pulling within 12 after Marques Wilson treys with 9:04 then 7:55 remaining in the first.

Trailing by 16 once again with less than three minutes to go, the Mountain Hawks ended the half on a 7-0 run, Sophomore Jamieril Wilson accounted for the final five points behind a highlight-reel driving layup, then 3-pointer just 42 seconds later, to pull within 41-32 after 20 minutes of play.

The momentum continued into the second as a Taylor 3-pointer got Lehigh within 44-39. Less than two minutes later, Taylor finished a 3-point play to get the Mountain Hawks within three at 45-42.

Monmouth extended its lead back to two possessions for much of the ensuing minutes, until four consecutive Lehigh points got the Mountain Hawks within 54-52 with 7:51 on the clock.

The Mountain Hawks followed by scoring just two points over the next 3:30, but played tough defense to stay close. A Karnik offensive rebound and layup got Lehigh back within 57-56, but again Monmouth answered with an 8-0 run to go up 65-56 with 2:55 on the clock.

Taylor scored five of Lehigh’s next six points to pull back within three, but a Cohen jumper with 12 seconds remaining was off line, and Monmouth wrapped up the 66-62 victory.
